2020年度後期 講義概要

授業科目名	英語セミナー
主担当教員名	Richard Hodge
配当学年 等	医学科第2学年
学習目標	The goals for this course are: -to develop competence in English speaking and listening skills in one-on-one conversation, in group discussion, and in short speeches and presentationsto develop autonomy in language study for life-long learning.
授業概要	The course will mostly consist of pair and group speaking activities, role-plays, and regular presentations. There will also be readings and film clips on how culture influences the way that people communicate. Attention will be given to voice quality (intonation, stress, accent, rhythm, volume) and body language (eye contact, gestures, posture). Students will participate in choosing culture and science topics for discussion. Each student will develop and give an individual presentation developed over the semester with peer-support in groups of four, and with guidance from the teacher.
